

I wish to have the option of broadband over the phone lines.

AND I wish to have a wide choice of competing providers for that service, i.e. the FCC should not allow phone-line broadband service for any particular customer to be limited to one or a few providers.

Thank you.